• Wonderful Pretty Cure! The Movie

In addition to the main target demographic of parents and their children, a campaign targeting teen and 20s audiences was rolled out, attracting a wide demographic from children to adults.

In addition, in box office takings for the Precure series, Wonderful Pretty Cure! got the second all-time place.

• Re-screening of THE FIRST SLAM DUNK

The fan events held on August 31 and September 1 were sold-out successes.

Merchandising Rights

In addition to licensing of tokusatsu characters for toys, we actively pursued video game collaborations.

We licensed merchandise for Pop-up store, for The Yoshimune Chronicle: Abarenbo Shogun and three titles of UCHUKEIJI series.

TOPIC

Reviewing the production timeline for tokusatsu (special effects) titles

We revised the production schedule for KAMEN RIDER GAVV, which began airing in September 2024, bringing forward the schedule by three months from original plans.

Benefits gained by moving forward the completion of titles

- Overseas, where censorship screening is required, we aim to achieve simultaneous distribution with Japan to prevent the spread of pirated copies. The overseas rollout of titles will be expanded.
- This will enhance the promotion of both titles themselves and associated toys, leading to improved recognition.
- The approach will generate leeway in production schedules, facilitating workstyle reform at production sites.

Production of the SUPER SENTAI series has also been brought forward, and production of new series(2025) began two months earlier than usual.

Enhance the profitability of tokusatsu series domestically and overseas.

Toei Kyoto Studio Park x Fortnite

Action Tycoon Game

YO-KAI TYCOON Toei Kyoto Studio Park

Toei Group company Toei Studios Kyoto, partnering with The Unit, Inc. and Hypolygon Inc., released YO-KAI TYCOON Toei Kyoto Studio Park on the Fortnite video game at 10:00 a.m. on October 1, as part of the Japan Cultural Expo project for 2024.

For the first time, the Toei Kyoto Studio Park themed period drama was recreated in Fortnite, a video game with 500 million users worldwide.

The streets of Edo were recreated down to the fine details, including small objects in addition to the buildings.

In a world inhabited by samurais and ninjas, this action tycoon game lets players gather resources, forge weapons, assemble allies and battle yokai (supernatural creatures from Japanese folklore).

By providing the game to Fortnite users around the world, the project aims to spread recognition among foreigners who are not familiar with Toei Kyoto Studio Park, thus attracting inbound visitors.

Medium- to long-term vision: TOEI NEW WAVE 2033
 Key Strategies [2] Accelerate Global Rollout of Content

Branding

On October 8, which the company calls "Toei Day" because the numbers 10 and 8 can be sounded out as "To" and "Ei" in Japanese, the TOEI ARANAMI PROJECT was released.

As part of the project, a variety of appealing official Toei merchandise was sold, including T-shirts, caps, towels, socks and stickers featuring the Toei logo and distribution mark.

Japan welcomes many foreign visitors. The advance of globalization has driven a surge of interest in Japanese content such as period dramas, special effects films, anime, manga comics and so on. In addition, kanji characters, traditional Japanese symbols and unique aspects of Japan's written culture have also become a strong draw for foreigners.

Given this demand, Toei has redesigned and commercialized its company logo and distribution mark (opening video) that appears at the beginning of Toei films, which depicts rough waves crashing against a rocky shore.

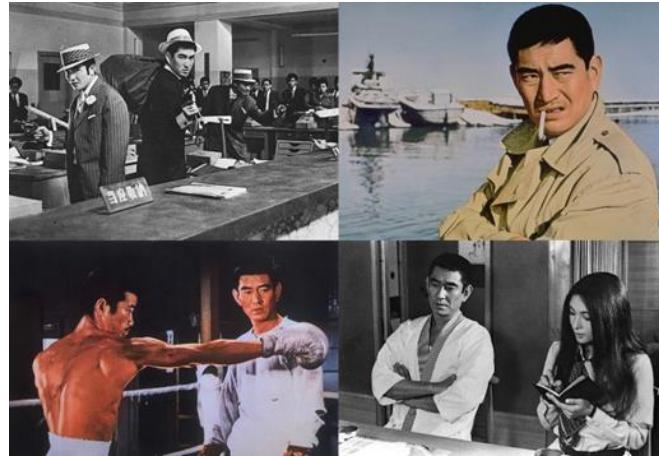

Through the TOEI ARANAMI PROJECT we will continue to pursue Toei brand messaging both in Japan and overseas.
